The Liverpool and South West Lancashire Family History Society was formed in 1976 to promote the study of family history and to provide educational facilities to the general public. The Society is a registered Charity and consists of six regional groups situated in Leigh, Liverpool, Skelmersdale, Southport, Warrington and Widnes.

Full contact details of these groups, their officers, places and times of meetings can be found overleaf and are also contained in each edition of the Society's Journal the "Liverpool Family Historian" which is published quarterly and distributed to all members. Further information can be obtained from our website www.liverpool-genealogy.org.uk or by E-mail to the officers listed.

Members can submit queries for publication in the Journal to our online Forum for help in their research and are also welcome to attend any of the free Help Desks at the venues also listed on page 4.

The Society is a member of the Federation of Family History Societies and the North West Group of Family History Societies and has close ties with archivists, libraries, record and register officers within the region.

As well as research interests our quarterly Journal carries contributed articles on all aspects of family history including biographies, short family histories, record sources, tips on research and extracts from transcripts of documents.
